The 'Battle of the Nations' Event Arrives at Shoot Out Arena

From Dust to Glory, Join SOA for the Bull Riding Event That Crosses Borders

Tombstone, Arizona: May 10th and 11th, 2024. Shoot Out Arena proudly presents the thrilling two-day event, "Battle of the Nations", featuring an epic showdown between teams representing the USA, Mexico, and Native Americans. The bull riding event will be held at the Shoot Out Arena, located at 316 S 3rd St. Tombstone, AZ 85638.

Kati Jundt, one of the co-owners over at SOA, had some exciting stuff to share about the upcoming event! She said, "Get ready for the 'Battle of the Nations' at Shoot Out Arena! It's not just your typical bull riding showdown – it's a real celebration of guts, talent, and teamwork. This year, teams from the USA, Mexico, and Native American communities are all coming together in Tombstone for the ultimate showdown. It's all about showing how sports can bring different cultures together and build friendships. Our arena isn't just a place to watch bull riding – it's a symbol of the amazing spirit of competition, community, And camaraderie."
