ARTIST BIO

Ikea Damone is a Contemporary Soul and Soul-Jazz artist whose work blends emotional depth with a modern, atmospheric sound. She draws inspiration from a rich musical lineage including her grandmother, Geraldine Crowell, who performed with The Shirelles, and her great-grandfather, David Jones, a member of the vocal group The Rays. Influenced by artists such as Sade, Billie Holiday, Amy Winehouse, Queen Latifah, and Amel Larrieux, Ikea offers a fresh yet timeless voice rooted in introspection, warmth, and soulful storytelling.
